

Ragged Cutoff

MARCH

Michael Grey

A stock score sheet line in the lingo of the pipe band adjudicator quick to note one of the most obvious failings of a competing pipe band. I've both written and received score sheets many times with RCO. The phrase, usually referring to drones heard past the end of the performance, seems more suited to the work of a doctor or carpenter. Regardless, the words have always made me laugh.